SECTION 1. GENERAL RULES FOR OFFICERS, CHAIRMEN, AND MEMBERS

- A. Refer to the bylaws of this Association in their entirety for specific duties of officers and chairs. Other requirements are set out in these standing rules.
- B. Responsibility to the membership is an implied duty, which all officers and chairs should keep firmly in mind. Decisions should be made and duties performed on the sole basis of what would be best for this Association; personal preferences should not be allowed to interfere.
- C. Strict adherence to the Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility is imperative for officers and chairs. They should be aware at all times that they must set an example for members and that they represent the membership in all contacts with the public.
- D. All officers, chairs, and members should attempt to attend all functions of this Association, as well as those of Texas ALP and NALS, when feasible.
- E. Annual reports of officers and committee chairs to be given at the annual meeting in April must be in writing. Copies should be prepared for the president, secretary, and the pertinent file.
- F. Reports of officers and committee chairs to be given at the business meetings should be distributed to all persons in attendance, if they have not been included in the consent agenda. Said consent agenda shall be distributed to all members by the president, whenever possible, at least three (3) days prior to the business meeting. The reading of reports shall only be necessary for clarification. Items presented in reports which require action shall be discussed under new business during the business meetings.
- G. Motions shall be presented in writing to the president and secretary. If at all feasible, motions shall also be presented in writing to all officers and chairs prior to the business meetings so that the officers and chairs shall have ample opportunity to review the motions before voting on them at the meeting. Motions of a routine nature (approval of minutes, etc.) may be handled orally or distributed in writing prior to the meeting of the board of directors.
- H. If there is to be discussion of a motion presented, a speaker may not speak more than twice on any one motion, except on order or request of the president. The president may limit time for debate on any subject for up to three (3) minutes per speaker. Debate shall alternate between pro and con on any motion. If there is not a speaker who wishes to be recognized in opposition to the immediate past speaker, debate shall be considered closed, and a vote shall be called. The president may either act as timekeeper or appoint a timekeeper.
- I. The president shall have knowledge and final approval of all formal mailings, whether by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, pertaining to this Association. In the absence of the president, mailings pertaining to this Association should be then sent to the vice president for approval. In the event the president chooses to appoint liaison officers for the chairs, the liaison officer shall also be made aware of all mailings, whether by mail, facsimile, or e-mail.

- J. Requests for use of the roster for any purpose other than the business of this Association shall first be submitted to the EC for approval/disapproval. No member should assume that the roster is to be used for any type of personal or non-association related business (i.e., advertising) without permission from the EC.
- K. Copies of all letters shall be sent to the president and the secretary and any other officer or chair concerned with the contents. When identical letters are written for mass mailing, only one (1) copy of the letter with an accompanying mailing list shall be sent to the president, secretary and any other officer or chair concerned with the contents.
- L. Any member desiring to discontinue membership in this Association is requested to notify the treasurer. If said member is an officer or committee chair, he/she shall also submit a written resignation to the president and to the secretary. If he/she is a member of a committee, he/she shall furnish a copy to the chair of that committee.

Cumulative expenditures exceeding $200 in any budget category shall also be presented to the EC prior to its expenditure.
